Arkema winner of the ICIS surfactants innovation awards

On 25 May at the 11th ICIS World Surfactants conference Arkema wins the Innovation award for its new SENSIO™ product range

Arkema is proud to announce that its new SENSIO™ biobased surfactant range received the 2021 ICIS Surfactants Award for Innovation.

The Surfactants Awards, which was judged by a panel of worldwide industry experts, tasked to identify and recognize projects, collaborations and great achievements by companies in the Surfactants value chain.

Derived from castor oil and readily biodegradable, SENSIO™ is an innovative nonionic biobased surfactant range designed to meet formulators and consumers needs in the cleaning product market.

SENSIO™ provides multiple benefits and enhances detergent formulations thanks to its unique cleaning and foaming profile, and enhanced user experience based on ease to formulate and friendly labelling enabling its use in demanding ecolabels.

“Being recognized with this award is a great honour and reflects ARKEMA's innovation capabilities and commitment in developing efficient and sustainable solutions”

Jean Francois Chesneau – President Surfactants & Additives

Building on its unique set of expertise in materials science, Arkema offers a portfolio of first-class technologies to address ever-growing demand for new and sustainable materials. With the ambition to become in 2024 a pure player in Specialty Materials, the Group is structured into 3 complementary, resilient and highly innovative segments dedicated to Specialty Materials -Adhesive solutions, Advanced Materials, and Coating Solutions- accounting for some 80% of Group sales, and a well-positioned and competitive Intermediates segment. Arkema offers cutting-edge technological solutions to meet the challenges of, among other things, new energies, access to water, recycling, urbanization and mobility, and fosters a permanent dialogue with all its stakeholders. The Group reported sales of €8.7 billion in 2019, and operates in some 55 countries with 20,500 employees worldwide. www.arkema.com
